

Dog Owners Warned Of Traplines On Snowmobile Trails

YELLOWKNIFE (19 January 2007) - The Department of Environment and Natural Resources (ENR) wishes to advise the public to be aware of traplines on snowmobile trails in the Yellowknife area.

Snowmobile trails in, and around, the Yellowknife area have been, and continue to be used, for trapping.

It is an offence under the Wildlife Act to disturb a lawfully set trap. If you have any questions or concerns, please call the North Slave Regional ENR Office at 873-7184.

For more information, contact:

Raymond Bourget
Senior Wildlife Officer
Environment and Natural Resources
Government of the Northwest Territories
Tel: (867) 920-3049
Email: Raymond_Bourget@gov.nt.ca