Thursday, February 27 continued

Katimavik Room B

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>10:40 – 11:05 am</td>
<td>Case Study – The Success of the Spirit Bear Lodge</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Doug Neasloss, Stewardship Director of the Kitasoo/Xai'xais First Nation, BC</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A successful Indigenous business model for conservation-based ecotourism arising from the conservation network and supported through conservation financing such as Coast Funds. The Lodge has helped strengthen economic, conservation and cultural wellbeing in the community of Klemtu.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

11:05 am – 12:00 pm

Conservation Financing Panel

This panel will bring together the information presented from the morning talks and discuss what financing options might be most promising for conservation areas in the NWT. Moderated by Steve Kallick, Director of International Boreal Conservation Campaign. Moderated by Brie O’Keefe, independent consultant and policy specialist for the International Boreal Conservation Campaign.

- Eddy Niisten, Ecoadvisors
- Joseph Pallant, Ecotrust
- Doug Neasloss, Kitasoo/Xai'xais First Nation
- Dave Poulton, Alberta Land Institute

Katimavik Rooms D&E

Luncheon

Katimavik Room B

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1:00 – 1:20 pm</td>
<td>Innovations in Research</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Robin Roth, Associate Professor, University of Guelph and a Principal Investigator of the Conservation Through Reconciliation Partnership (CRP)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1:20 – 2:40 pm

Experiences in the Co-production of Knowledge Panel

Stories on research projects where Indigenous communities have built positive relationships with researchers and thereby increased community capacity to realize community research goals. Panel moderated by Robin Roth, Associate Professor, University of Guelph.

- Petter Jacobsen, Ekwǫ̀ Nàxoède K’è: Boots on the Ground/ Tłı̨chǫ Government
- Shari Fox, Research Scientist, National Snow and Ice Data Center, University of Colorado
- Frank Brown, Adjunct Professor at Simon Fraser University’s Resource and Environmental Management Department. He recently received an Honourary Doctorate of Law from Vancouver Island University.
- Dieter Cazon, Liidlii Kue First Nation Manager, Lands and Resources and Dehcho Collaborative on Permafrost (DCoP) with Wilfrid Laurier University

Katimavik Rooms D&E

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3:00 – 4:00 pm</td>
<td>Doing Research in a Good Way Panel</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A discussion on how to recognize Indigenous community rights and interests in research in the aspects of data storage, collection, credit/ownership and sharing of information. How to ensure that research is conducted with the intention of benefiting Indigenous people or communities. Moderated by Debbie Delanscay, consultant, researcher and advisor to Hoti T'seeda.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Jessica Simpson, Research Advisor, Hoti T’seeda, will speak to OCAP as well as made-in-the-NWT research protocols</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Jessica Dutton, Manager, Research Ethics and Regional Programs, Aurora College</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• AlexisAndre, NATD MA from the University of Victoria, former Heritage Researcher with the Gwich’in Tribal Council, Department of Cultural Heritage</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NWT Conservation Network Gathering

Examiner Hotel, Yellowknife, NT

February 26 and 27, 2020

Acknowledgements of Gathering Partners:

The Government of the Northwest Territories thanks you for joining this year’s Gathering, and wishes to acknowledge the contributions of Gathering planning partners:

- Tłı̨chǫ Government, Department of Culture and Lands Protection: Phoebe Rabesca, Trena Weyallon, Ambe Chenemu
- Łutsel K'e Dene First Nation and Tides Canada: Steve Ellis
- North Slave Métis Alliance: Cat Fauvelle
- Hoti T'seeda: Jessica Simpson and Debbie DeLancey
- Conservation through Reconciliation Partnership: Steven Nitah and Robin Roth

This project was undertaken with the financial support of:

Ce projet a été réalisé avec l’appui financier de:

- Environment and Climate Change Canada
- Environnement et Changement climatique Canada
The 2020 Northwest Territories (NWT) Conservation Network Gathering has been designed to inspire and connect, bringing together more than 100 participants, including Indigenous leaders, federal and territorial governments, academia, non-government organizations and conservation leaders from across Canada, to exchange knowledge, build partnerships and nurture collaboration. Over two days, participants will explore themes of innovation in protected area governance, management, finance, sustainability and research.

Wednesday, February 26

Katimavik Rooms D&E

8:00 – 9:00 am

Registration and Breakfast

Katimavik Room B

Introductory Session

9:00 am

Opening Remarks

9:15 – 9:30 am

- Welcome: Opening Prayer
- Welcome from Government of the Northwest Territories, Department of Environment and Natural Resources – Deputy Minister Erin Kelly
- Introduction to the Gathering – Facilitator Kathy Racher

9:30 – 10:30 am

Inspiring Innovation in Conservation – Opening Keynotes

- Danika Littlechild, Assistant Professor of Law, Carleton University
- Steven Nitah, Advisor, Indigenous Leadership Initiative (ILI)
- Nitah, Advisor, Indigenous Leadership Initiative (ILI)
- Introduction to the Gathering – Facilitator Kathy Racher

11:15 am – 12:00 pm

Advice from the Field: Collaborative Governance and Consensus-based Decision-making

- Tom Nesbitt, Chair of the Tuktut Nogait National Park Board and Co-chair of Saavyu Yellowstone National Historic Site Board, will speak to his experience with collaborative governance consensus decision-making models – the practical application.
- Herb Norwegian, former Grand Chief of Dehcho First Nations, will speak to his experience with Parks Canada’s collaborative governance model as it was set up with Nahga Deh – Nahanni National Park Reserve.

1:00 – 1:10 pm

Plenary Session/Discussion on Morning Sessions

Katimavik Rooms D&E

Luncheon

Katimavik Room B

Indigenous-led Approaches to Protected Area Management and Monitoring

1:00 – 1:10 pm

Introduction

The afternoon sessions to share a range of planning methods to guide development of management, monitoring and cultural continuity aspects of operations with the recently established protected areas and support the development of the conservation network guardian programs.

1:10 – 1:35 pm

Innovation in Indigenous-led Management Planning

- Kathy Racher and Phoebe Rabesca, Tłı̨chǫ Government
- Case study of Dinàgà Wek’èhodì candidate protected area Healthy Country Planning experience.

3:00 – 4:30 pm

Cultural Continuity Panel

Panel members will focus on what makes a successful on-the-land education/wellness program able to help revitalize Indigenous cultural practices and food systems, Indigenous value systems, Indigenous language, and the community’s connection to the land. Moderated by Mannde McDaidon, co-founder and the Managing Director for Dene Nahjo, an Indigenous innovation collective that strives to foster Indigenous leadership skills and values through cultural resurgence initiatives.

- Melaw Nakek’o – Moosehide Tanning Programmes with Dene Nahjo
- Chloe Dragon-Smith – Bushkins on-the-land initiative
- Frank Brown – ILI Senior Leader, initiator of and lead coordinator for the Tribal Canoe Journey to Bella Bella
- Kelsey Wigthpon – Dechinta Centre for Research and Learning
- Tony Rabesca – Retracing Our Path Through Eyes of Our Elders – Tł̨ı̨chǫ On-the-Land Youth and Elder Program

4:30 – 4:45 pm

Wrap Up

Prince of Wales Northern Heritage Centre

6:00 – 7:30 pm

Evening Dinner at Flavour Trader

Open at 6:00 pm – Dinner starts at 6:30 pm (limited capacity – check with organizers)

7:30 – 9:00 pm

Performances in the Auditorium

Join us for a variety of performers to showcase various Denendeh cultures. This evening is about celebrating the vitality of Indigenous cultural expression as an important aspect of cultural continuity inspired by the diverse landscapes of the NWT.

Featured artists: Leela Gilday, Lee Mandeville Band, Karen Wright-Fraser and dancers

Thursday, February 27

Katimavik Rooms D&E

8:00 – 9:00 am

Registration and Breakfast

Katimavik Room B

Sustaining Indigenous-led Stewardship

9:00 – 9:10 am

Welcome Back and Opening Remarks

- Welcome back
- Opening remarks from Minister Thompson, Department of Environment and Natural Resources, Government of Northwest Territories

9:10 – 9:35 am

Covering the Costs of Conservation: A “Survey of Tools” with International Examples

- Eddy Niessen, Ecoadvisors

This presentation will introduce the topic of how to finance conservation areas by introducing a range of tools used internationally.

9:35 – 10:00 am

Carbon Financing – What is it, How does it Work?

- Joseph Pallant, Ecotrust

10:00 – 10:25 am

Public/Private Financing of Indigenous-led Conservation in Canada’s North

- Developed by Steve Kallick, Director of International Boreal Conservation Campaign and delivered by Brie O’Keefe, IBCC Policy Specialist

This presentation will give an overview of the current situation and highlight public/private partnership opportunities for advancing Indigenous-led conservation in Canada’s North.

Katimavik Rooms D&E

Break

10:45 – 11:15 am

Diverse Stories of Protected Area Establishment in the Northwest Territories, including Thaidene Nêné, Ts’u:tsil尼ënê Tuyeta, and Edéhzhíe

An introduction to each area’s ecological and cultural values, a brief history on the areas establishment process and an update on where each site is at in establishment and management.

Panel speakers will introduce their Guardian programs, highlighting the relevance or relationship to protected areas. Moderated by Steven Nitah, Advisor, Indigenous Leadership Initiative (ILI)

- Doug Nealsoss, Kitasoo/Xai’xais Spirit Bear Conservancy Monitoring Program
- Dana Holtby, Coastal Stewardship Network, a program of Coastal First Nations – Great Bear Initiative, provides programming and support to Coastal Guardian Watchmen, and the stewardship offices of the nine-member alliance of First Nations along BC’s North and Central Coast and Haida Gwaii
- Dáhte Tseko (Dehcho First nations) and Mike Low (AAROM) – Dehcho K’ehodi: Taking Care of the Dehcho in Dehcho Dene Zháti. The Dehcho K’ehodi Stewardship Program is a regional on-the-land program being built in collaboration with all DFN member communities.
- Prairie Desjarlais, Ni Hat’Ni Dene Lutsel K’e’s Indigenous guardian program

Katimavik Rooms D&E

Break

Katimavik Room B

3:00 – 4:30 pm

Cultural Continuity Panel

Panel members will focus on what makes a successful on-the-land education/wellness program able to help revitalize Indigenous cultural practices and food systems, Indigenous value systems, Indigenous language, and the community’s connection to the land. Moderated by Mannde McDaidon, co-founder and the Managing Director for Dene Nahjo, an Indigenous innovation collective that strives to foster Indigenous leadership skills and values through cultural resurgence initiatives.

- Melaw Nakek’o – Moosehide Tanning Programmes with Dene Nahjo
- Chloe Dragon-Smith – Bushkins on-the-land initiative
- Frank Brown – ILI Senior Leader, initiator of and lead coordinator for the Tribal Canoe Journey to Bella Bella
- Kelsey Wigthpon – Dechinta Centre for Research and Learning
- Tony Rabesca – Retracing Our Path Through Eyes of Our Elders – Tł̨ı̨chǫ On-the-Land Youth and Elder Program

4:30 – 4:45 pm

Wrap Up

Prince of Wales Northern Heritage Centre

6:00 – 7:30 pm

Evening Dinner at Flavour Trader

Open at 6:00 pm – Dinner starts at 6:30 pm (limited capacity – check with organizers)

7:30 – 9:00 pm

Performances in the Auditorium

Join us for a variety of performers to showcase various Denendeh cultures. This evening is about celebrating the vitality of Indigenous cultural expression as an important aspect of cultural continuity inspired by the diverse landscapes of the NWT.

Featured artists: Leela Gilday, Lee Mandeville Band, Karen Wright-Fraser and dancers